

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with water and let it stand twenty-four hours. A sediment at the bottom indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. If it is evidence of kidney trouble, too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and relieves pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c and $1.00 sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells everything more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmor & Co., Swamp-Root Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember this name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

May God ever bless them all. They shall ever have our prayers.

Three Friends.

A Child Wedding and Repentance.

Bartley Gorman is in jail in Bayonne, N. J. He cut off his wife's luxuriant locks, to keep her at home, and says he wonders why a fellow is such an ass as to get married.

He is in jail because he can not get bond to pay his wife $4 a week. Just one more of those fool weddings of children. Bartley is a burlesque youth. He has about as thorough conception of the duties of the problem of aerial navigation. The girl is 17, and there is a baby.

Can parents stop it? Not always. And you can't trust to the common sense of youthful lovers. A grown man in love is more or less insane. You can't expect more of children.

But the law can close down on those who perform unwisely marriages, and it should.

There is always somebody handy to marry a pair of fools. It is a joke, or at least so considered. The minister who turns the couple away from his door, refusing to be a party to what is a moral crime, has accomplished little. They go somewhere else. They find a minister who has no scruples, or a Magistrate who would marry hawk and dove for the paltry pennies there is in a job.

We have in mind a man who quitted a black woman and a white man, and who boasted that he "picked up a good income" by marrying people whom other men had refused to marry.

He was ignorant, gross—a menace to society. But he had the authority.

The great State of Ohio couldn't do a finer thing than to reform its marriage laws. It should be impossible for children to wed. Perhaps the solving of the marriage problem would also, to a great extent, do away with the divorce evil.

Bartley Gorman is undoubtedly an ass. He confesses it. But he is only one of thousands who are permitted to be fools because of unwise laws.—Cincinnati Post.

THOMAS.

There was church on Wolfe Sunday. A large congregation attended and all seemed to enjoy themselves. There was one joiner. We are sorry to say that the eight months old baby of Mrs. Emma Morrison (who is the widow of Jackson Morrison) died yesterday. Its death was a surprise to all the neighborhood, being caused suddenly by croup. James Rateliff, who has been ill with scrofula for some time, is slowly recovering. Little Edgar, son of Turner Burdett, died Monday with fever. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved parents. Louisa Burdett, who has been very ill with fever, is recovering. Hayes McCoy and Misses Allie Priest and Dixie Maynard attended church on Wolfe Sunday. John Butler, of Pikeville, and A. Stephens, of Prestonburg delivered excellent speeches to the voters at this place Tuesday. Misses Cora and Stella Cassidy and Vina Price of Pilgrim, attended church on Wolfe Sunday and were heartily welcomed by their many friends. They were accompanied home by Keenies Caines of Meta. The school at Fraley school house is progressing nicely. Wamp James killed a fine beef Saturday and invited us all to take dinner with him Sunday. Miss Allie Priest left Tuesday for Prestonburg, where she will attend school the coming winter. W. E. McCoy made a flying trip to Brandy Gap Saturday. Bud Maynard passed here enroute to Whitehouse Monday. W. B. Taylor, of Meta, is visiting relatives at this place. Rhodes Mead and Tina Blackburn were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Sunday. We wish them all the joy and prosperity possible. John Hilber is busily engaged making molasses for J. B. McCoy. Miss Dixie Maynard visited Miss Allie Priest Sunday and stayed over night. Paul Lalonde purchased a fine beef of W. E. McCoy recently. Hayes McCoy made a flying trip to Prestonburg Tuesday. There is church at Big Branch Chapel Sunday.

The Salvation Army.

Col. H. C. and his band of men from the Salvation Army returned to Cincinnati after a tour through the mountains of Kentucky and Virginia. Capt. Beout is the Commercial-Tribune, thus speaks of the trip:

"It was hard traveling in a considerable part of the country, but the people were hospitable and kindly. They seemed to take an interest in our coming and turned out in large numbers to see us and attend the meetings. Even along the road we used to find crowds of them waiting for us to go by. There are few newspapers there, and telegraphs and telephones, but the store keepers kept papers from outside, and from them the news quickly spread about the Salvation Army troop. Only at Whitesburg and at Prestonburg were there any inconvincible shown us. There some of the crowds called us 'Coxie's Army,' and gathered about our camp shouting, 'They can't preach,' etc., and the people seemed cold and indifferent. But those were the only places where we met this kind of treatment. It is incorrect that any of our men were shot at by mistake or otherwise. That did not occur at all. Owing to there being no railroads in the place we had to have our mail addressed to us three days ahead, and even then we did not get it always."

"There was some amusement over getting a request from Mr. Booth asking us to send him telegrams of our progress. Of course, there being neither wires or wireless telegraph there we could not comply. It is a rather rough country. The roads are roads in name for the most part. Yes, there are churches, but generally religious services are held but once a month."

We held fifty meetings, and there were present at them 13,000 people. There were a number converted and many others joined in the application for prayer. "There are many peculiar sights in the feud country. All the people you meet look very serious—a smiling face is the exception. Even in the daytime curtains are drawn and doors closed. One man said he had not stepped outside his door for eight months. Everybody carried a gun. What scared the lawless element most was the Gatling gun which could fire 105 shots in thirty seconds. "The feudists do not mix in public meetings. They came to ours, though, and heard the gospel of peace. It is what they need. Some places we had trouble in making them understand we were 'preaching soldiers'. One mountaineer who lodged us was filled with suspicion at first, but when he realized our mission was a truly religious one he refused to charge us anything, saying, 'seeing you are going around preaching morality, I shan't charge you anything.'"

"The mountain villages are very dark at night. Not a lamp is seen. Even the courthouses, when illuminated, is made so by borrowed lamps. Grown up men playing marbles is a common sight in the villages. This child's game seems even to have driven out baseball."

A Cure For Dyspepsia.

I had Dyspepsia in its worst form and felt miserable most all the time. Did not enjoy eating until after I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which has completely cured me. Mrs. W. W. Saylor, Hilliard, Pa. Kodol represents the natural juices of digestion combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. It cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach. Sold by Louisa Drug Co., Dr. J. OVERDA

John Evans is still making sorghum. Quite a number of teams are hauling lumber from the Wm. Young place. The people in general greatly sympathize with Joe Young on account of his typhoid fever trouble and death. Although hard to bear, may they all be resigned to the will of our Heavenly Master, who is too wise to err and too holy and just to do wrong. Rev. T. H. Largo preached at Morgan's creek last Sunday, and married Deane Large and David Simpson at Oles Sunday eve. Everything in the way of the election is very quiet, but we look for all the voters out and hope they will vote right.

Break in the Hog Market.

With a crash like that of 1893 the Chicago hog market broke a few days ago and prices fell from forty to sixty cents in one day. Within a week prices fell off from seventy cents to $1 according to the grade of hogs, and the condition of the market was said to be worse than any time since 1892.

It was the direct result of the closing of the yard and the corner operated by Swift & Co. In clearing up that deal it was necessary to hold up the high prices which have prevailed in the past year. During that time hogs sold as high as $8 and ranged between that price and $6. Now, it is the intention, it is declared, to put the market on a firm $4.50 basis. This means a heavy loss to farmers and shippers and is another lesson that the trusts fix prices to suit themselves regardless of the result to the producer or consumer.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. S. Haviland, of Aramark, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by A. M. Hughes. Trial bottle free.

B. J. Ewen, the star witness in the Jett-White trial, will deliver 150 lectures throughout the North and West.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food, digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the greatest danger and death of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottle 50c; regular size, 75c.

IN MEMORIAM.

Our little daughter, Mona, departed this life Oct. 26th, 1903, aged 3 months and 9 days.

It is so sad to think our little darling is gone. Our hearts are filled with anguish and pain; it seems as though we could not bear our afflictions but for the consoling words of our Lord who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." We know that our sweet little babe is safe in the arms of Jesus. It is another consolation to know that our little daughter will not have to suffer the trials and temptations of this wicked world, but that she has gone to a home beyond the sun at noonday, a home where temptations and tribulations are not known. Although our little babe could remain with us but 3 short months it has left a tender place in our hearts that time can never erase. We bring up our children here in this world, they go out to fight life's battles as best they can; we know not what their future will be, we know not where they are going to spend eternity. But not so with the innocent babes. They leave this land of sin for a land of love, joy and peace. We have three little angels in Heaven, two, (Loyola and M. Anna) who preceded little Mona. Why should we not have and feel an interest in that beautiful city where our children are?

Lord give us strength our loss to bear, And lead us in the Heavenly way. Oh may we meet our children there in realm of everlasting day.
